

Name of the Project	Fund Source	Year Run	Target Area	Project Goal	Project Objective	Project Activities Achievement
Éua Biodiversity Protection Project	Globe Environment Facility Fund	2009-2013	Éua	Empower Youth, Students and Community by implementing activities which help to sustain the upkeep of the Environment	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- To Promote Healthy Living to the people of 'Eua as a way of life</li> <li>- To protect and conserve the remaining forestry and wild life that lies on the eastern side of the island.</li> <li>- To demonstrate and enforce the environment activities that contributes to promoting healthy environment e.g. composting, recycling, replanting etc.</li> <li>- Provide and update youth with information about safe/unsafe environment practices contributing to the climate change and provide seminars for school children</li> <li>- Equip Youth and students with knowledge about inter-relationships between climate, soil, vegetation, relief and humans through discussion and trainings</li> <li>- To promote and encourage the people of 'Eua by implementing simple, positive activities that show the value of responsible environment practices (for the betterment of tomorrow.)</li> <li>- To weave together important lessons from the EYC and other organizations that relate to the issues of environment</li> </ul>	1. Communities at 'Eua have increased awareness and understanding about the importance of the Environment. Including, the value of biodiversity, conservation, sustainability and enhanced sustainable management practices with natural resources. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1.1 Undertake two environment awareness workshops conducted at the community by Partner Organization</li> <li>1.2 Build three bill boards for the main road to promote healthy Environmental practices.</li> <li>1.3 Promoting, by starting to work with the schools and children at a young age, a better understanding of environmental issues. In hopes they will be able to implement healthy decisions and environmental practices early on. This will hopefully stay with them through their entire life.</li> <li>1.4 Consulting and encouraging every village to develop a community regulation plan centered on environmental protection</li> </ul> 2. Community led native forest restoration projects that are initiated in key areas. In hopes of maximizing soil, water, and forest conservation practices. With the community having the capacity to continue on with the restorations of this project (post project.) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>2.1 Train community's youth group in nursery techniques and forest restoration</li> <li>2.2 Establish a nursery and stock it</li> <li>2.3 Undertake tree planting at priority sites</li> <li>2.4 Provide adequate facilities for after care and continuation of forest restoration (post project.)</li> </ul> 3. Managing waste in the community is one of the biggest issues, which people mostly, exposes their waste by burning without classifying, recycling or composting. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>3.1 'Eua youth congress and youth group and involvement of school do a main road cleaning up in every quarter.</li> <li>3.2 Undertaking two training workshop on Positive Environment Promoting</li> <li>3.3 Environmental health talks that pass through the outreaching community program TNYC radio</li> </ul> Program, TV program. Youth monthly new paper (le'o 'o e kaha'u)

						3.4 Train the community village in composing technique and encouraging of using organic cropping. 3.4 A sign tag to spot in the forest in promoting of preserving of nature beauty of 'Eua, also a sign of restricted area that rule by the Government ( community remainder) 3.5 Educate community village, young people and student on how to classify their waste, and promote recycling, reuse of waste, but not burning. 3.6 Strengthen the community and youth groups through training (lifestyle and management Training) to implement project activities.
--	--	--	--	--	--	---